

01/08/14

President of the CFGCSA

"Committed to Service Beyond Expectations"

CASTLE HAYNE, North Carolina --- January 8, 2014 --- Members of the Cape Fear Golf Course Superintendents Association (CFGCSA), a large, professional organization comprised chiefly of golf course superintendents, other turfgrass managers, and various supply chain partners in the greater metropolitan area of Wilmington, convened at the North Carolina State University (NCSU) Castle Hayne Research Station to elect their new Board of Directors.

Keith Williams, a Green Resource sales associate, and 18-year member of the CFGCSA was selected as President. Other officers include:

Vice President

Greg Cross

Wilmington Municipal Golf Course

Secretary

Trent Venters

Masonboro Country Club

Treasurer

Steve Hughes

Landfall Property Owners' Association (POA)

Past-President

Grayson Grainger

The Players' Club at St. James Plantation