Wells Fargo Championship

"Committed to Service Beyond Expectations"

CHARLOTTE, North Carolina --- May 2, 2016 --- David Dettmer, CGCS, a Green Resource sales associate, spent the week at Quail Hollow Club, host of the 2016 Wells Fargo Championship. Mr. Dettmer collected data during tournament week: putting green speed, moisture, and tested the putting green's firmness. This data was utilized to give feedback to the PGA TOUR Agronomist, whom decided how to manage the growing conditions of the putting greens to promote putting consistency.
